tion, that he expressed a desire to return here in warmer weather. "I'm going to try to come back to this country next summer," he told newspapermen. "I know these hills would be beautiful in the summer time."

Mr. Rockefeller was both surprised and pleased to learn that a number of miners in this section are the owners of their own homes. He was also pleased to learn of the large number of schools in this section.

Jerome H. Wheelwright, of Baltimore, president of the Consolidation Coal Company, Carl G. Gray, of Baltimore, president of the Western Maryland railroad, and ex-Senator Clarence W. Watson, of Fairmont, were other notables in the inspection party. In addition to many officials of the coal company, there were a number of newspapermen on board the car.

Mr. Rockefeller seemed greatly interested in every kind of development work in this section. He asked questions freely of those sitting near him. "I want to know something about this section," he said.

Those in the party besides Mr. Rockefeller were Brooks Fleming, Jr., of Fairmont, assistant manager of the West Virginia division of the Consolidation Coal Company; G. M. Alexander, of Fairmont, general counsel for the Consolidation Coal Company; Jerome H. Wheelwright, of Baltimore, president of the Consolidation Coal Company; Carl G. ## Does Coffee Bother?

Any one who has headaches, bilious attacks, heart flutter or some other of these common ills, had better look to coffee drinking; and remember that there's one sure, easy way to be rid of coffee troubles—quit coffee—and

Use INSTANT POSTUM

—the Pure-Food Drink

A level teaspoonful in a cup of boiling water makes a delicious drink—instantly. The rich flavour of Instant Postum, much like the mild Javas of the Old Dutch Gov't plantations, makes the change easy.

But more important, Instant Postum, made only of wheat and a bit of molasses is free from the drug, caffeine, in coffee or any other harmful element. Old and young alike may drink as much as they desire with no bad "after effects."

Pure and delicious, Instant Postum costs less and tastes better than much of the coffee in general use.

No bother to prepare—no bother to health.
